NOTES:

[1] Bank of America note: Bank of America is currently not opening new Debtor in Possession bank accounts.

[2] The Citizens branch must contact John Morris in Cranston, RI, in order to open a valid DIP account. He is at (401) 477-1441, john.k.morris@rbscitizens.com. Citizens Bank has reserved the right to require new bankruptcy accounts to be subject to management approval and any case's accounts may be required to reach a threshold of at least $10,000.

[3] This bank has chosen to limit its bankruptcy estate accounts to chapter 11 customers who have pre-existing relationships with the bank (i.e. prior to filing).
